Mr. T. FISHER UNWIN'S LIST.

Now ready, at all Libraries and Booksellers'.

The Peoples and Politics of the Far East:

Travels and Studies in the British, French, Spanish, and Portuguese Colonies, China, Japan, Korea, Siam, and Malaya.

By HENRY NORMAN.

Over 60 Illustrations from Photographs by the Author, Coloured Frontispiece from a Drawing by a Chinese artist, and 4 Maps. Demy 8vo, buckram, 21s.

The Times: "Every one who turns over Mr. Norman's lively pages will recognise the keenness of observation and the vigour of presentation with which he has discharged his task. . . . His chapters are vivid in description, shrewd in observation, painstaking in investigation, pleasant in tone and temper, and full of lively impressions of travel. . . . It must suffice to say, in conclusion, that the whole volume is thoroughly readable, and that it constitutes a valuable and timely contribution to the study of contemporary life and politics in a region which seems destined in the near future to engage more and more of Western attention and concern."

The National Observer: "This book contains a mixture of description, character-drawings, statistics, and political forecast, but it is none the worse for that. Mr. Norman's variety may cause his pages to appear rather desultory, but they are undeniably entertaining. . . . Mr. Norman is never commonplace even when treating of such well-known towns as Pekin or Singapore, while his journey through parts of Malaya unvisited by Europeans was most romantic."

The St. James's Gazette: "Not for many a day have we opened a more interesting book than this. . . . As geographer and explorer he [Mr. Norman] has done valuable work."

The Speaker: "This is a very remarkable and very attractive work, combining the brilliancy and picturesqueness of the most readable kind of travel in known regions with the excitement proper to the narrative of the explorer, and with a political theory as the outcome of it all which is likely to set the Chauvinist sections of the press of England and of the Continent by the ears."

* The First Edition of 1,000 copies was exhausted within one week of publication. A Second Edition is now ready.*

J. J. JUSSERAND'S NEW WORK.

A LITERARY HISTORY of the ENGLISH PEOPLE:

From the Origins to the Renaissance By J. J. Jusserand, Author of "English Wayfaring Life," etc. Frontispiece. Cloth, 12s. 6d. net.

The Times: "M. Jusserand has many advantages over Taine. His learning and his industry are certainly not less conspicuous, his critical method is less rigid and mechanical, his English sympathies are stronger and based on a much more familiar knowledge of English habits and English modes of thought; at the same time, like Taine, he is independent of purely English prejudices, and his literary judgments are those of a citizen of the great republic of letters, which knows nothing of national or political boundaries. Altogether, the work is full of a rare attraction."

On 29th inst., demy 8vo, cloth, 16s.
